

ABRAHAMIC COVENANT, GOD'S PROMISE

The Abrahamic Covenant is a promise from God for a PERSONAL, NATIONAL, and UNIVERSAL blessing that is UNCONDITIONAL, UNENDING, and UNFULFILLED.

A. The Promise to Abram is a _____, _____, and _____ blessing

Genesis 12:1–3

B. The Abrahamic Covenant is _____

Genesis 15:1–21

Jeremiah 34:18- 19 which is referred to as “Cutting a Covenant”

C. The Abrahamic Covenant is _____ (_____)

1. Everlasting

Genesis 17:8

1 Chronicles 16:16–18 & Ps 105:9–11

Je 31:35–36

2. God will not forget the Covenant w/ Abram

Deut. 4: 26 & 31 uses 2 different words; v.26; shāmad; overthrow or remove and v.31; shāhat; eliminate, put out of existence

3. Not make a full end

Jeremiah 30:11

Jeremiah 46:27–28

D. The Abrahamic Covenant is _____

Psalm 89

Amos 9:11–15

Hosea 3:5

Ezekiel 34:23–24

Ezekiel 37:24–26

1 Kings 4:24–25 compare with 2 Kings 13:22–23

ABRAHAMIC COVENANT, GOD'S PROMISE

1. The prophets reveal a future time period when Israel will live in the land given to the fathers

Jeremiah 3:17–18

Micah 7:18–20

2. Israel will possess the land forever.

Isaiah 60:21

3. New Testament references to future fulfillment

Matthew 1:1

Luke 1:37 “no promise”, ῥῆμα

Luke 1:67-73

4. The promise was not negated after the crucifixion as Peter

Acts 3:25–26

5. God's calling of special people is irrevocable

Romans 11:1-2

Romans 11:28-29

Conclusion:

E. God has made a promise to you and I.

Acts 16:29-31

Romans 8:35–39

1. The anticipated question: _____
_____?

2. Paul's response:

Romans chapter 9 is about Israel's past and God's choosing

Romans chapter 10 is about Israel's present and her rejection of the

Romans chapter 11 God has given Israel a temporary hardening

You can know that God will not turn back on his promise to you just as He has been and will continue keeping his promise to Abram.